2017 JOSEPH PHELPS INSIGNIA 96 POINTS

It comes bounding out of the glass with exuberant scents of Black Forest cake, preserved plums and blueberry pie plus touches of red currant jelly, potpourri, clove oil and dark chocolate... boasting rich, decadently perfumed black fruit preserves flavors with a racy backbone and velvety tannins, finishing long and spicy. -LPB, Oct. ## 2017 JOSEPH PHELPS INSIGNIA 96 POINTS

A beautiful, focused wine with a tight center palate of blackberries, blueberries and dark chocolate. Very subtle. Hints of mint and sage, too. Medium to full body and fine, racy tannins. A reserved and very pretty Insignia. Fresh finish. Hard not to drink now. -JS, Jan. '20

2017 JOSEPH PHELPS INSIGNIA 94 POINTS

Delivers showy fruit, with layered flavors of warmed boysenberry, blackberry and açai berry paste, framed by a subtle alder hint and backed by warm earth and cast iron details on the finish. Not shy, and well-built for the vintage. -JM, July '20
