WINE ENTHUSIAST
THE WORLD IN YOUR GLASS

95 This impressively layered, complex and cool-climate characteristic white is layered in gravelly texture and crushed rock. Briny ocean influence coats a crisp core of green apple and Meyer lemon. -VB, Sept. 2020

Robert Parker
WINE ADVOCATE

95 Opening notes of saline, crushed nuts, lemon peel and quince. The palate is juicy and very silky, its citrusy fruits opening to savory hints underneath, and it finishes very long and nuanced. -EB, Sept. 2020

Wine Spectator

92 Intense minerality accents the sleek pear tart and apple pastry flavors, loaded with rich, vibrant acidity. Viscous midpalate, with angel food and creamy accents on the luscious and well-spiced finish. -KM, May 2020

JEB DUNNUCK

95 Rocking notes of buttered lemons, white flowers, and brioche. It's pure, beautifully balanced, and has a great finish. It gains more complexity in the glass, revealing green almonds, toasted bread, and mint-laced nuances. -Aug. 2020
